Communiqué of the Ministerial-level Council of the League of Arab States at its extraordinary session concerning the development of the situation in Darfur (8 August 2004)

The Council of the League of Arab States met in extraordinary session at the ministerial level at the request of Republic of the Sudan to consider the development of the situation in Darfur under the Chairmanship of H.E. Mr. Abbas El Fassi, Minister of State of the Kingdom of Morocco, and with the attendance of Professor Alpha Oumar Konaré, Chairman of the African Union Commission, and his Special Representative for Darfur, Mr. Hamid Al-Ghabid, Mr. Jan Pronk, Special Representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations for the Sudan, H.E. Mr. Al-Haj Abu Bakr Tanko, Minister of State for Foreign Affairs of the Federal Republic of Nigeria representing H.E. Mr. Olusegun Obasanjo, President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

The Council considered all aspects of the developments in the situation in Darfur, particularly subsequent to the adoption of Security Council resolution 1556 (2004) of 30 July 2004 concerning the subject. It heard the presentation made by the Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Sudan concerning the efforts made and the steps taken by the Government of the Sudan to restore stability in Darfur, and the steps it had taken to comply with its obligations under its agreement with the United Nations and Security Council resolution 1556 (2004).

The Council welcomed the steps taken by the Government of the Sudan to comply with its undertakings and obligations under the agreement signed on 3 July 2004 with the Secretary-General of the United Nations concerning the resolution of the crisis in Darfur, particularly in the light of the following:

(a) The suspension by the Government of the Sudan of all entry visa restrictions for humanitarian workers, the registration of non-governmental organizations, and also its suspension of restrictions on the importation and use of humanitarian assistance materials and means of transport and communication;

(b) The deployment of a police force throughout the region, support for the work of the judicial system in the Darfur provinces, particularly in areas where emigrants are concentrated, the establishment of an independent commission to investigate human rights violations and the facilitation of its work, the authorization for the deployment of human rights monitors from the United Nations High Commission for Human Rights in Darfur and the dispatch of commissions of inquiry headed by women magistrates to receive complaints connected with rape, in compliance with the Sudan's obligation and undertaking to take measures to end impunity and to investigate breaches of human rights;

(c) The start of operations for the voluntary return of emigrants and refugees;

(d) The arrest of a number of leaders of the Janjaweed, their prompt arraignment before the courts and the passing of judicial sentences on some of them, as a start to an extensive campaign to disarm the extralegal militias and bring them to justice;

(e) The responsiveness of the Government of the Sudan to the invitation by the African Union to resume talks unconditionally in Addis Ababa on 15 July 2004, talks which ended before they had begun because of the position of the two rebel movements and their insistence on prior conditions.

The Council confirmed its obligation to respect and to ensure respect for the sovereignty, territorial integrity and independence of the Sudan and called on all States actively to affirm that commitment.

The Council welcomed the positive cooperation of the Government of the Sudan and the steps taken by it to fulfil its undertakings under its agreement with the United Nations and its obligations to implement Security Council resolution 1556 (2004).

The Council also welcomed the agreement between the Secretary-General of the United Nations, the Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Sudan and the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for the Sudan to include the General Secretariat of the League of Arab States in the Joint Implementation Mechanism between the Government of the Sudan and the United Nations to evaluate the implementation of the obligations contained in the joint communiqué issued by them on 3 July 2004.

The Council called on the two rebel movements to resume peace talks with the Government of the Sudan under the auspices of the African Union and without prior conditions in order to achieve a political solution to the crisis in Darfur.

The Council emphasized that Arab-African interdependence, stemming from the historical continuity between the two sides and now reinforced by the current cooperation between them in all fields, refutes any allegations concerning the racial and ethnic nature of events in Darfur.

The Council expressed its appreciation of the role of the African Union headed by H.E. Mr. Olusegun Obasanjo, President of Nigeria, and H.E. Professor Alpha Oumar Konaré, Chairman of the Commission of the African Union, in addressing the situation in Darfur and the readiness of the Arab League to cooperate closely with, and offer full support for, the efforts of the Union to strengthen the course of Arab-African cooperation in addressing issues of common concern.

The Council decided to offer full Arab support to the endeavours of the African Union in guiding efforts to find a solution to the crisis in Darfur and to call on Arab States members of the League of Arab States, particularly those that are members of the African Union, to cooperate effectively in the Ceasefire Monitoring Group and its protection force. It also called for the participation of the Arab League in mediation efforts, under the auspices of the African Union, between the Government of the Sudan and the two rebel movements, and in the commissions stemming from the ceasefire agreement signed at N'Djamena on 8 April 2004.

The Council welcomed the announcement of the resumption of negotiations between the Government of the Sudan and the two rebel movements in the Nigerian capital of Abuja on 23 August 2004.

The Council also appealed to the international community to allow a sufficient and appropriate time frame to the Government of the Sudan to enable it to comply with its undertakings and obligations under its agreement with the United Nations and Security Council resolution 1556 (2004), to reject any suggestion of coercive military intervention in the region or the imposition of any sanctions on the Sudan, and to provide the necessary support for the return of the emigrants and refugees to their villages and farms, eschewing any pressure or attempts to impose sanctions which would give rise to nothing but insecurity and negative complications for the Sudanese people as a whole and would further exacerbate the crisis in Darfur, and to urge Arab and international donors to lose no time in funding the humanitarian needs of the victims in Darfur and to implement the undertakings announced at the Geneva meeting last June.

The Council requested the Secretary-General to establish urgent and intensive contacts with international and regional parties, particularly the permanent members of the Security Council, in order to explain the Arab position concerning the crisis and to secure greater understanding and support for it, and to ensure that the Government of the Sudan is given an adequate and appropriate time limit to address all the challenges of the crisis in Darfur.
