LETTER DATED 26 NOVEMBER 1994 FROM THE PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL

As of 3 p.m., New York standard time, the Bangladeshi contingent of UNPROFOR had placed two of its APC's in front of the Bihac hospital to deter further Serbian attack. Despite this courageous action to stop the victimization of civilians, the attack continued with the Bangladeshi contingent directly in the line of fire of the Serbian forces.

May I ask for your kind assistance in circulating this letter as a document of the Security Council.
