Letter dated 18 June 2008 from the Permanent Representative of Belgium to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Security Council

Belgium and other members of the Security Council are concerned about the deterioration of the situation in Zimbabwe. Therefore, we request that a senior official of the Secretariat formally brief Member States on the situation in a meeting of the Security Council. The meeting could take place in the coming days and would be an opportunity for Council members to receive a briefing on the recent visit to Zimbabwe by Assistant Secretary-General Haïle Menkerios.
